- 100 AN EXCEPTIONALLY FINE AND QUITE UNIQUE EXAMPLE OF A BRESCIAN WHEEL-LOCK PISTOL OF THE VERY FINEST WORKMANSHIP, FINISH AND ARTISTIC DECORATION. The graceful lines of this Pistol are perfect as also is the balance and the chiselling and piercing of the furnishings are proof of the perfection in these arts attained by the gunsmiths of Brescia, in the early part of the 17th Century. The butt, trigger guard, trigger and all the furnishings are of steel pierced and chiselled with Renaissance decoration in the very finest Brescian style. Besides this the stock is further embellished with lace-like work in steel beautifully pierced, fretted and engraved. There is no mark inscribed on this pistol, but it would appear to be the finest work of Lazarino Cominazzo of Brescia. Length 22in.

* * From the North Collection.
Illustrated in "Hand Firearms, etc.", Figs. 15, 16, 17.

[See ILLUSTRATION]

- 101 A fine Brescian Pistol of early type, with flattened butt, and having a lock of very rare type and of the finest quality. - 103 AN EXCEPTIONALLY FINE AND BOLD EXAMPLE OF A GERMAN WHEEL-LOCK PISTOL OF THE LATTER PART OF THE 16TH CENTURY, SHOWING THE FINEST WORKMANSHIP, ARTISTIC DECORATION AND FINISH OF THIS PERIOD. The stock of ebony is beautifully inlaid with buck horn and mother-o'-pearl well engraved with hunting subjects, masceroons, etc., and is further enriched with gilt metal bands at the juncture of the stock with the butt. The ball butt is a fine bold one deeply fluted and enriched with gilt metal ribs terminating in a bold medallion portrait in high relief. The cover of the wheel is of metal gilt embossed and perforated. Length 21 in. The barrel has an armourer's mark (? Nuremburg).

* * From the Collection of Sir Guy Laking, who is reported to have bought this from Sir Guy Sebright, Chevenings, Dunstable.

Illustrated in "Hand Firearms, etc.", Figs. 5, 6, 6A.

[See ILLUSTRATION]

- 104 AN EXCEPTIONALLY FINE EXAMPLE (IN FINE ORIGINAL CONDITION) OF A MATCH-LOCK MUSQUET OF THE EARLY PART OF THE 16TH CENTURY. The stock is elaborately inlaid with quaint birds in brass engraved and designs in mother-o'-pearl intercepted with brass wire and point inlay work, the ram-rod holders being of ivory. The stock, of fine form, is similar to that illustrated in Fig. 536, in the 1890 edition of "Handboch des Waffenkunde," by "Wendelin Boeheim." The lock is a bold and typical one. The whole is of good workmanship and less crude than the majority of early match-lock weapons. Length 5ft. 3 in.

* * Illustrated in "Hand Firearms, etc.", Fig. 2.

[See ILLUSTRATION]

- 105 A FINE EXAMPLE OF THE FORKED REST FOR A MATCH-LOCK MUSKET. This is of brass and of artistic form well pierced and engraved, having terminals of acorn form

- 106 AN UNIQUE AND EXCEPTIONALLY FINE EXAMPLE OF A BRESCIAN SPORTING GUN OF THE VERY FINEST WORKMANSHIP AND FINISH, of the early part of the 17th Century. The lock, on the snaphaunce principle, is very deeply and beautifully chiselled. All the mounts and furnishings are also deeply chiselled and beautifully pierced, in the very finest Brescian style and finish, with ornamental motifs and intricate floral scroll-work among the branches of which sport semi-existent animals.

This piece again shows the perfection in the art of perfect and bold chiselling in steel attained by the gunsmiths of Brescia at this period and the magnificent quality of their workmanship. The stock of burr walnut is also finely carved in the best style. The barrel (33in. long) is octagonal at the breech verging into a form of faceting after which it is circular. It is inscribed "Lazarino Cominazzo." Length 4ft. In the finest original condition.

* * From the Kennedy Collection.
Illustrated in "Hand Firearms, etc.", Figs. 37, 38.

[See ILLUSTRATION]

- 107 AN UNIQUE SPANISH SPORTING GUN OF THE FINEST WORKMANSHIP AND FINISH. This is believed to be the earliest example of a gun fired on the detonating principle, the lock being inscribed "Seville 1720," and the barrel and trigger guard "JH. GUTIERREZ." The furnishings of steel are deeply engraved and the lock beautifully and boldly chiselled in the finest Spanish style, the hammer in the form of a dog, and the magazine and pan cover in the form of a rabbit squatting. It is further embellished with very deeply and beautifully chiselled scrolls. Previous to the discovery of this gun Forsyth was the accepted inventor of the detonating lock in 1807. Length 3ft. 3½in.

* * From the Collection of Sir Henry Burke.
Illustrated in "Hand Firearms, etc.", (lock) Fig. 108.
